The diagram shows a U-shaped office layout. The top wall features three square desks. The left wall has three square desks, with the bottom one labeled '1'. The right wall has five square desks, with the second one from the top labeled '1'. The bottom wall has a service counter labeled '服務台' and a door labeled '門'. On the left side, there are two vertical rectangles labeled '電梯' (elevator) and '辦公室' (office). The central area is a large open space.
